RULES OF PROCEDURE - CANDIDATES

ARTICLE 1 - Semi-final and Final random draw

Contestants will play in the order determined by drawing lots. The draw will take place during the welcome dinner, on Thursday 6th of February 2025 at the B&B Hotel Cergy Port in Cergy. Contestants are required to attend the draw in person. A second draw will be held to determine the order of the final round, after the semi-final round. The public may attend all rounds of the competition.

ARTICLE 2 - Compulsory piece

Contestants must begin their solo programme in semi-final round on the 7th of February with the compulsory work by Maurice Ravel « À la manière de Chabrier ».

The rest of the programme is a free choice of the candidate as long as it follows the rule of one from the 18th century, one of the 19th century and one from Debussy/Ravel to Ligeti.

ARTICLE 3 - Timing

If contestants play longer than the allotted 30 minutes, the Chairman of the Jury may stop the contestant without penalizing them.

ARTICLE 4 - Jury

Jury members have to attend the two days 7th and 9th of February of the competition for their votes to be valid. If one jury member can not attend the semi-final, he will be excluded from the jury.

ARTICLE 5 - The international competition

1. SEMI-FINAL

The first vote

Each Jury member will choose 3 candidates they want to send in the final round. The one who receives the absolute majority of vote is automatically qualified for the final round. If 2 candidates receive the absolute majority of votes, both are qualified for the final round ; when it is 3 candidates that receive that same number of votes, they are all qualified for the final round.

* If none of the candidate receive the absolute majority of vote, the jury votes again, only between the 6 candidates that received the biggest amount of votes. Each member of the jury chooses 3 candidates, and is sent in the finals the one that received the biggest amount of votes. If 2 candidates received the same amount of vote, they are both taken on for the finals. If 3 of them receive the same amount of vote, those are taken on for the final. No more vote is thus needed.

Second vote

Each jury member chooses 2 candidates among the 5 candidates left. If 2 candidates receive the same number of higher votes, both are qualified to the final round. In the case of an equality, the Chairman of the jury's choice is decisive.

Third vote

Each jury member chooses 1 candidate among the 4 candidates left. If 2 candidates receive the same number of votes, the Chairman of the jury's choice is decisive.

Brigitte Engerer Prize

Jury's members will attribute to one of the 9 candidates left the Prize Brigitte Engerer. This 500€ prize awards a very talented candidate who has got a big potential to start a good career.

2. FINAL

After the final round, each member of the jury chooses 1 candidate to be the Gold Piano Campus. If one candidate gets the majority of votes, they are declared Gold Piano Campus. If none of them gets the majority, the jury votes a second time between the two candidates that had the highest amount of vote. Then, the jury votes for the Silver, and the Bronze is logically deducted. In case of an equality, the chairman of the jury decides.

Piano Campus Prize of the best interpretation of the contemporary piece : in 2025, Régis Campo's piece is compulsory. The piece can be performed with the score. The jury and the composer will determine the prize based on a vote after the finale : the composer has a total of 50% of the votes, and the rest of the jury get the 50% remaining.
